1. The LEIPZIG-ROCKAU (N 52/E 21) airfield was not occupied by flying or ground units on 28 November 1949. The landing field was being used as a training ground by the People's Police.
2. On 29 November 1949 the unoccupied airfield was guarded by a German police detail quartered in a wooden cantonment building on the edge of the field. The landing field was serviceable.

25X1 Comment:

No changes have occurred at the field compared to observations of September and October 1949. There are no indications of an intended occupation of the field by an air unit,

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
